These allow students to focus on areas of particular interest or relevance to their career plans and to gain deeper knowledge in specific areas of the discipline or to broaden their understanding by exploring related topics. Some soft core courses are from related disciplines, fostering a more interdisciplinary approach.
3. Elective Courses allow students the freedom to select from a diverse pool of courses, often across different disciplines or specializations. Elective courses can complement the core curriculum by providing additional knowledge and perspectives. They provide opportunities to acquire new skills or deepen existing ones in areas that may not be covered by the core curriculum
4. Research Courses develop students' analytical and problem-solving skills. They are designed to provide students with the skills, knowledge, and experience necessary to conduct high-quality research and contribute significantly to their overall academic and professional development in their chosen field. These immersive experiences develop in students the competencies required to become effective and ethical practitioners in their respective fields of specialization.

9. Practical Courses emphasize hands-on learning and real-world application of skills and knowledge. They involve laboratory work, workshops, simulations, and field experiences, allowing students to practice and refine their abilities in a controlled environment. These courses aim to enhance technical proficiency and prepare students for professional practice.

2. The CIA and ESE examination pattern vary from course to course and are approved by the BoS of that discipline.
3. The pass percentage for both ESE and CIA are 40%.
4. A candidate must secure 40% in CIA to be eligible to appear in the ESE.
5. A candidate must appear for ESE for that semester to be eligible for readmission to the next semester. Failure to appear for the ESE will result in the candidate having to repeat the semester.
6. A candidate requires a minimum of 75% attendance in each course to be eligible to write the ESE.
7. If a candidate fails in a semester examination, either in theory or in practical, she shall appear for that subject only at any subsequent regular examination, as prescribed for completing the programme.

College Anthem

Ring the bells of Jyoti Nivas,
Flame of Wisdom bright,
Proudly we unfurl the banner
Of this Abode of Light

Hearken all ye Jyotinivites
To the clarion call
Duty, Truth and Loving Kindness
Show to one and all.

Thousands proudly through her portals
Passed with fame and pride
Long their light shall linger o'er us
And with us abide.

If at times shadows darken
O'er life's stormy sea,
May the light of Jyoti Nivas
With you ever be.

Hail once more immortal college
Site of Wisdom's lore
Through long years of selfless service
Reign forever more.

Students Prayer

God of the universe, author of life,
Supreme Lord, source of knowledge and wisdom,
We come before you to receive your blessings.

Give us the wisdom that we may use to the full,
the gifts and talents which you have given us.

Help us respect all people as members of one great family.
Help us to know you, the beginning of wisdom,
your purity, that we also being pure in heart
may see you and your love, that we may love you as you have first loved us.

May your presence go with us,
your love sustain us
and your peace abide with us.

Amen
